

Watershed Wonders Didja Know? Educational Colouring Pages

Meet “Marty” Monarch Butterfly

Didja Know?

The Monarch is a showy orange and black butterfly with small white spots. Caterpillars feed on milkweed plants. The largest threat to Monarchs is habitat loss and fragmentation at overwintering sites in central Mexico where forests are being logged and converted into agricultural fields and pastures. Widespread pesticide and herbicide use throughout the Monarch's range also has an impact on populations.

